

Indianapolis Archdiocese criticized after calling for firing of two gay Catholic schoolteachers

Bill In The News (Metro Weekly):

The Indianapolis Catholic Archdiocese is currently in the midst of purging gay teachers in same-sex marriages from its schools.

Most recently, Cathedral High School was forced to fire a married gay teacher after Archbishop Charles Thompson ordered them to do so or risk forfeiting their "Catholic identity."

Catholic League President Bill Donohue, a conservative firebrand who frequently appears on television to defend the Catholic Church's stance on various issues, including its opposition to same-sex marriage, issued a statement praising Thompson's decision. READ MORE HERE
