

MORE INTOLERANCE IN SAN FRANCISCO

Bill Donohue comments on a resolution passed by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

Sacramento does not lack for lawmakers who are hostile to Catholicism, but it takes a back seat to those who work in San Francisco. The Board of Supervisors in San Francisco unanimously passed a resolution yesterday click [here] that declares war on the Archdiocese of San Francisco; some Sacramento lawmakers previously sought to intimidate the archdiocese.

To read the letter I sent to the Board today, click here.

Contact the author of the resolution, Board Supervisor Mark Farrell: Mark.Farrell@sfgov.org