

Kim Kardashian draws backlash over Virgin Mary dress, candles

Bill in the news: Daily News

“Kim Kardashian drew the ire of both social media users and the Catholic League after she stepped out wearing a sheer dress featuring the Virgin Mary – on the same day she began promoting devotional candles with her face on them.”

“The religiously inspired items became the subject of an impassioned post on the Catholic League website, in which the religious anti-defamation organization’s president accused the reality star of ‘ripping off Catholic iconography to make a quick buck and grab headline news.’” READ MORE HERE.
