

LATEST NEWS ON SAMANTHA BEE'S SHOW

Catholic League president Bill Donohue comments on Samantha Bee's TBS show, "Full Frontal":

Here is the bad news: Burger King ran two commercials on Samantha Bee's TBS "Full Frontal" TV show on August 8.

Here is the good news: Her show continues to struggle to find sponsors; it showed a drop from last week. Indeed, it had to resort to running more advertisements for movies in lieu of decreasing corporate sponsorship of goods and services.

Catholics are urged to boycott Burger King. Not only does it sponsor a show that trashes Catholics and women, its cultural priorities are anything but Catholic-friendly.

In 2017, Burger King created a "Proud Whopper" for the San Francisco gay pride march. Moreover, the Burger King McLamore Foundation even reserves school scholarships for students who are homosexuals. There are no scholarships exclusively given to students who are heterosexual.
