

LEAGUE ADDRESSES PRESIDENT CLINTON IN NEW YORK TIMES

On the op-ed page of tomorrow's New York Times the Catholic League will publish an "Open Letter to the President of the United States." The letter will address the issue of anti-Catholicism and the problems that the Clinton administration has had with this matter over the past two years. It will also address Catholic-bashing in the culture, with an explicit reference to Planned Parenthood, and will call on the President to use the moral resources of his office to combat anti-Catholicism.

The Catholic League is the nation's largest catholic civil rights organization. It defends the right of Catholics—lay and clergy alike—to participate in American life without defamation or discrimination.
