

LEAGUE ASKS BLOCKBUSTER TO WITHDRAW FILM

Last month's Catalyst included a review of the movie, The Life of Brian. Subsequently, we were troubled to learn that this anti-Catholic film has been stocked by Blockbuster. The league has asked Blockbuster chairman H. Wayne Huizenga to withdraw the movie from its shelves. Previously, Blockbuster refused to stock The Last Temptation of Christ; it did not cooperate by removing Priest.

League members can write to Chairman Huizenga at Blockbuster Entertainment Group, One Blockbuster Plaza, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301. Many thanks to our former general counsel, Andrew McCauley, for bringing this to our attention.
