

League newsletter editor chairs lay ministry board

John Pantuso, Catholic League Newsletter editor since December 1986, has been elected chair of the Lay Salvatorian National Board.

Lay Salvatorians share in the mission and charism of the Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Fathers and Brothers) and the Congregation of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Sisters). John and his wife Joanne, who will celebrate their 25th anniversary this month, have been Lay Salvatorians for twenty years.

In addition to chairing the Lay Salvatorian board, John represents the lay affiliates on the three member Joint Leadership Executive Committee. He also chairs the Joint Communications Committee.
