

LOCKWOOD JOINS LEAGUE

At the end of 1999, Robert Lockwood resigned from his position as president of the publishing division of Our Sunday Visitor. Lockwood, who sits on the board of directors of the Catholic League, began 2000 by accepting a new post at the Catholic League, Director of Research.

Bob brings to the league considerable strengths in publishing, writing and office management. His immediate tasks include research and analysis and the issuance of "White Papers" on various subjects. He not only will be a big boost to the organization, his new job signals that the league has entered a new phase.
