

LOGO MUST GO

People Express Inc., which is headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, offers chauffeured transportation services. That's all fine and good, but its logo must go. Pictured next to its name is a symbol that is virtually indistinguishable from the Chi-Rho, the Greek letters that represent Christ's name.

We have contacted the president, Robert Ortega, and await his reply. We made the point that the nightclub, House of Blues, once used the symbol of the Sacred Heart of Jesus but later modified its logo to satisfy our concerns. We hope Mr. Ortega proves to be just as reasonable.
