

Marin Voice: As Catholic leaders make demands, claims about activists, history must be questioned

Bill in the News (Marin Independent Journal): During the course of this case, both Archdiocese of San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone and Catholic League President William Donohue used clever language in letters to the Marin District Attorney's Office before DA Lori Frugoli reduced charges against the activists. READ MORE HERE