

MORE ERRORS BY WCP0 CINCINNATI

Catholic League president Bill Donohue comments on more revelations about an investigation of the Catholic Church by WCP0 Cincinnati:

We recently criticized WCP0, the ABC affiliate in Cincinnati, for running a four-part series on Ohio's Catholic dioceses and religious orders. We detailed why it was seriously flawed, and even published a separate account of how duplicitous the Channel 9 station is: it fails to police its own sexual offenders.

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati has published its own rejoinder to the WCP0 investigation, and it is impressive. It reveals many serious errors, so many in fact that it devastates the report. To read its account, click here.

Survey after survey shows how little faith the public has in the media. WCP0's I-Team series on the Catholic Church offers one more example.
