

NO TO “LIFE PARTNERS”

The Philadelphia/South Jersey chapter of the Catholic League, headed by Arthur Delaney, is supporting the efforts of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia in opposing a “life partners” bill. The legislation seeks to put alternative lifestyles on the same legal, social and moral plane as the institution of marriage. The Philadelphia chapter placed an ad in Catholic Standards and Times urging Catholics to stand behind Cardinal Anthony Bevilacqua.