

NORTH DAKOTA BILL TARGETS CATHOLICS

Catholic League president Bill Donohue comments on a threat to religious liberty in North Dakota:

We've been down this road before: state lawmakers seeking to bust the seal of the confessional. At every juncture, when Catholics push back—we have played a major role in every instance—they win. North Dakota is the latest state to consider a bill that would eviscerate the Catholic sacrament of Reconciliation.

To read my letter to North Dakota lawmakers, click here.

Contact State Sen. Judy Lee: jlee@nd.gov