

On-campus drag show blasted for mocking Catholic faith prompts investigation

Bill in the news (Catholic News Agency): Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League, a nonprofit Catholic civil rights organization, blasted the performance, calling it "indefensible." In a letter to Oldham, he said the performer should be disinvited from the playhouse's next drag show, scheduled for Sept. 24. READ MORE HERE