

“O’NEALS” SPONSOR CAMPAIGN WORKING

Bill Donohue comments on the Catholic League’s ongoing campaign against the ABC show, “The Real O’Neals”:

It is extremely important that our supporters continue to ask the advertisers on this show to reconsider their sponsorship. For example, we have had productive conversations with several sponsors lately. In particular, we would like to single out Goya Foods, Inc. for their assurance that they will no longer advertise on the show.

We will ask our supporters to contact another sponsor starting again tomorrow.
