

Central Florida Catholics express joy, surprise after Pope endorses same-sex civil unions

Bill in the News (Orlando Sentinel):

Catholic League president Bill Donohue notes that the pope did not change church doctrine regarding his comments on civil unions because "It would be against everything he has previously said, and it would conflict with official Church teachings on the subject." READ MORE HERE