

ORTHODOXY AFFIRMED

Need some relief from this stuff? Here's what William Donohue said on the "Alan Keyes show" on June 13:

"If there's a Catholic teacher on a [Catholic] college campus right now—I don't care if it's a priest or a layperson—who doesn't accept the Catholic Church's teachings on human sexuality, on abortion and homosexuality, they have no business being there teaching, any more than you would have a racist or anti-Semitic priest or teacher.

"The fact of the matter is, we are far more tolerant of people who teach the wonders of homosexuality and abortion on college campuses and indeed in the seminaries, than we do for those who are anti-Semitic and racist. If we start treating people who think that freedom is genital liberation, the same way we do the bigots, we'll make some progress."
