

Oxford Union 'no platforms' Right-winger

Bill In The News (The Telegraph):

The Oxford Union has been accused of “no platforming” the head of a prominent right-wing Catholic organisation.

William Donohue, President of the Catholic League, an American civil rights group, claimed he had been unceremoniously “uninvited” to speak at an upcoming debate.

The debate, titled This House Believes The Catholic Church Can Never Pay For Its Sins, is due to be held this term. Mr Donohue said he is “appalled” at the way he has been treated by the 800-year-old debating society. Read More Here
