

“PICKET FENCES” MAY CRUMBLE

The word from Hollywood is that the CBS show, “Picket Fences,” may be retired. The show has suffered from low ratings and was bumped from its Friday 10 p.m. time slot in February. Though a decision to cancel the show has not yet been made, the prospects are not good.

The Catholic League has made several complaints about “Picket Fences” for the way it portrays Roman Catholicism.