

POPE'S REMARKS ON THE FAMILY AND SEXUALITY

Catholic League president Bill Donohue comments on remarks made by Pope Francis:

The World Meeting of Families is underway in Dublin. Pope Francis will speak to the crowd in a few days.

While the Holy Father's comments on economic issues, the environment, and migration reflect his more liberal leanings, his statements on marriage, the family, and sexuality evince a more traditional moral outlook.

The media have not widely reported on his remarks regarding the latter series of issues. To read some of his more poignant comments, click here.
