

Religious Americans Beware: Gov't Agencies May Consider You 'Potential Terrorists'

Bill in the news (First Liberty): The document sparked national controversy and drew sharp criticism from groups across the country. Catholic League President Bill Donohue condemned the memo, saying:

"There hasn't been a wave of virulent anti-Catholicism in the West like what we are currently witnessing in at least a hundred years...They are being monitored and persecuted for their faith by government bodies. That this is going on in what are called democracies is mind-boggling." READ MORE HERE
