

'SMILF' Star Frankie Shaw Reacts To Show's Golden Globe Nominations

Bill in the news: International Business Times:

While Shaw and her co-stars were thrilled by the Golden Globe nominations "SMILF" received, the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights doesn't think that the show deserves any recognition.

"Much to the approval of Showtime, women are treated as sexual toys by Hollywood moguls and actors. Indeed, [the network] basks in the sexual exploitation of women," Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights president Bill Donohue said in a statement to The Hollywood Reporter on Monday. "[Its] twisted show ['SMILF'] upped the ante a few weeks ago when it suggested that the Virgin Mary was raped and forced to give birth. Last night it depicted a homosexual priest sexually embracing a drunk." READ MORE HERE
