

Sponsor of campus antisemitism bill disputes free speech concerns

Bill in the News (The College Fix): Catholic League CEO Bill Donohue said the legislation has the “noble goal of seeking to combat anti-Semitism” but needs to be fixed by removing the current definition.

“The IHRA definition of anti-Semitism focuses heavily on speech. That is dangerous territory,” Donohue told The Fix via a media statement. “By contrast, the wording of the congressional bill concentrates on behavior, namely discrimination. That is on much safer grounds, constitutionally speaking.” READ MORE HERE
