

Staten Island to hold St. Patrick's Day Parade welcoming LGBTQ groups for the first time

Bill in the News (2 CBS News NY): The larger Manhattan St. Patrick's Day parade lifted its ban on LGBTQ groups marching in 2014, but Staten Island still hasn't. We tried contacting the organizer, but there was no answer. We did get a statement from Catholic League President Bill Donohue, saying in part: READ MORE HERE