

Summer of 2018 Showcases Sharp Media Bias in Pope Francis Coverage

Bill In The News (MRC Newsbusters):

Most national and international media display an astounding degree of selective perception when covering remarks and actions by Pope Francis.

As the Catholic League's Bill Donohue pointed out, this selective coverage of the Pope's recent remarks and actions is important, particularly as we look ahead to the upcoming World Meeting of Families, a Vatican-sponsored event which will be held in Ireland from August 22-26. READ MORE HERE
