

Teacher Unions Promote a Culture War Offensive

Catholic League in the News (American Greatness): As Susannah Luthi notes in the Free Beacon, "From its inception in 1979 in San Francisco's Castro District, the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence has satirized Catholic beliefs in the name of progressive activism. When Pope John Paul II visited San Francisco in 1987, the group held an 'exorcism' and a 'Condom Savior Mass' featuring the 'Latex Host' in Union Square, according to the Catholic League. READ MORE HERE