

The Papal Interview, Cardinal McElroy and Father Martin

Catholic League in the news (National Catholic Register): For example, recently, the Catholic League sent out a statement saying that Pete Buttigieg's marriage to his "husband" was not a real marriage but a mere legal fiction. And Father Martin immediately tweeted in response that Buttigieg is truly married in the eyes of the state and his Episcopal church, and therefore he is just as married as anyone else in our society. But what was the point of Father Martin's tweet? Why object at all to the Catholic League statement since, from an orthodox Catholic stance, it is a perfectly true statement? READ MORE HERE
