TIMES-UNION AD ON SEXUAL ABUSE LOBBY

ALBARY, NEW YORK | TIMES UNION

IND ADVERTISIONT SEXUAL ABUSE LOBBY IS AGENDA-RIDDEN

MONDAY, MAP 1, 308

On May 3-4, activists will descend on Albany pressing to lift the statute of limitations on the sexual abuse of minors. Their motives are not pure: their real goal is to stick it to Catholica. If the lawmakers and activists behind this effort were sincere, they wouldn't devote an entire day, May 4, to the Catholic Church. Had they chosen to address sexual abuse among Orthox Java - and no one elseit would properly be labeled anti-Semitic. That is why this stunt smacks of anti-Catholicism. Bill Donohue wrote a full-page ad, published today in the Albany Times-Union, on the anti-Catholic efforts underway in the New York capital this week.

Lawmakers will consider bills to lift the statute of limitations on the sexual abuse of minors, the real target being the Catholic Church, not the public schools. Anti-Catholic activists will push their agenda on May 3-4, devoting all day Wednesday to attacks on the Church.

To read the ad, click here.

We will provide contact information for select lawmakers over the next two days.