

UNMASKING MOTHER TERESA'S CRITICS

Unmasking Mother Teresa's Critics, Bill Donohue's latest book, will be coming out August 18. Published by Sophia Institute Press, it is timed for release just a few weeks before Mother Teresa is to be canonized on September 4. The book directly confronts those whose unfounded criticisms of Mother Teresa are sure to resurface in media accounts leading up to her canonization.

The current issue of Legatus magazine features a piece by Bill about the book, and his purpose in writing it. To read it, click here.
