

VICTORY

On October 9, the Senate unanimously passed the Freedom from Religious Persecution Act. Introduced by Representative Frank Wolf of Virginia, and supported from the beginning by the Catholic League, the bill seeks to reduce global religious persecution.

This is a victory we can all take pride in, but it will amount to nothing if the legislation is not vigorously enforced