

WHITEHEAD REPRESENTS LEAGUE

Ken Whitehead, a member of the board of directors of the Catholic League, represented the league at a Washington meeting of the Pontifical Council on the Family. According to the organizer of the event, Father Pavone, "Never before has a Vatican delegation had the opportunity to meet personally with such a broad representation of United States pro-life leaders." Whitehead discussed the work of the league.