

Whitmer accused of 'anti-Catholic bigotry' after chip video

Bill in the News (Washington Examiner): Another group, the Catholic League, called the video "anti-Catholic bigotry."

"What Whitmer did was to deride Holy Communion," Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League, said in a statement. "There is no wiggle room for her to deny the obvious. ... What Whitmer did is political suicide." READ MORE HERE