Subject: RE: Catholic League Ad Not Published In The Hollywood Reporter

Hi Jeff,

I am sorry but I was just informed that our Publisher, Lynne Segall, has a concern with the artwork and the ad message and we were unable to run the ad. She felt that the message was not appropriate and has chosen to reserve the right not to print it. I am sorry that no one informed you in my absence as I was out all week with limited access to my email.

We will make sure that there was nothing charged to your credit card, etc. I am very sorry for this news and I apologize that we did not let you know of this decision sooner. I appreciate your time, and understanding as this was completely out of my hands.

Please let me know if you have any questions, etc.

Best,
Lori

Jeff- nice speaking with you earlier.

As I mentioned we don't allow Variety to be used as a forum for mud-slinging, and we feel that is the only part of the letter that crosses that line.

Thank you
