

October 2013 to October 2014

From six months prior to six month after April 2014 initiation of grand jury investigation into Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown

Richard Perkins Smith, a former Episcopal Academy Teacher in Newtown, was charged October 29, 2013 with sexual abuse of children. He was already in custody in Massachusetts, where he was charged with raping a child, indecent assault, and battery. He was later convicted and sentenced to four years in prison.

Avonworth School District teacher Walter Street of Ben Avon was charged on January 31, 2014 with rape, statutory sexual assault, aggravated indecent assault and other crimes.

On February 19, 2014, Nazareth Area Middle School drama teacher Shawn W. Salevsky was sentenced to 4 1/2 to 11 years in state prison and lifetime sex offender registration for sexual assault of an 11 year old boy.

On April 30, 2014, retired Gettysburg Area School District teacher Robert Bonebrake was charged with involuntary deviate sexual intercourse with a child, attempted involuntary deviate sexual intercourse, indecent assault, and endangering the welfare of a child.

On May 14, 2014, Paul Hochschwender, a second grade teacher and soccer coach at Darby Township School in Glenolden, was arrested and charged with nine counts of institutional sexual assault, seventeen counts of indecent assault of a person under 13, and nine counts of corruption of minors.

Anton Fomin, a piano teacher at the Malvern School of Music in Malvern, was charged on June 12, 2014 with aggravated indecent assault, corruption of minors and child endangerment after sexually abusing three 6-year old students during piano lessons.

On August 12, 2014, Matthew Puterbaugh, a music teacher at Dover Intermediate School, was charged with three counts of possession of child pornography. He had previously also been accused of child rape and invasion of privacy.

On September 23, 2014, Matthew Sokol, a substitute teacher in the Baldwin-Whitehall School District in Pittsburgh, was charged with possession and dissemination of child pornography.