ATTACKS ON THE CHURCH ARE MOUNTING

For more than a quarter century, I have been the president of the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights. Never have I seen more vicious attacks against the Church than today. Priests, especially, are being libeled and slandered on a daily basis—all because of a small minority of offenders (most of whom are either dead or out of ministry).

We fight back at the Catholic League, and we do so with impressive results. There is no other Catholic organization that can match our string of victories.

Don't make the mistake of thinking that just because you are not a victim of defamation that all is fine and good. It is not. The fact is the Church is under assault from the media, Hollywood, the artistic community, and government. And nowhere is it bashed more than on college campuses.

Membership in the Catholic League is $30 a year; $20 for seniors. You receive a monthly journal, Catalyst, that details the attacks on the Church and what we are doing about it. Please consider joining us in this important mission.

See our website, www.catholicleague.org, to find out how to join. Or call us at (212) 371-3191.
